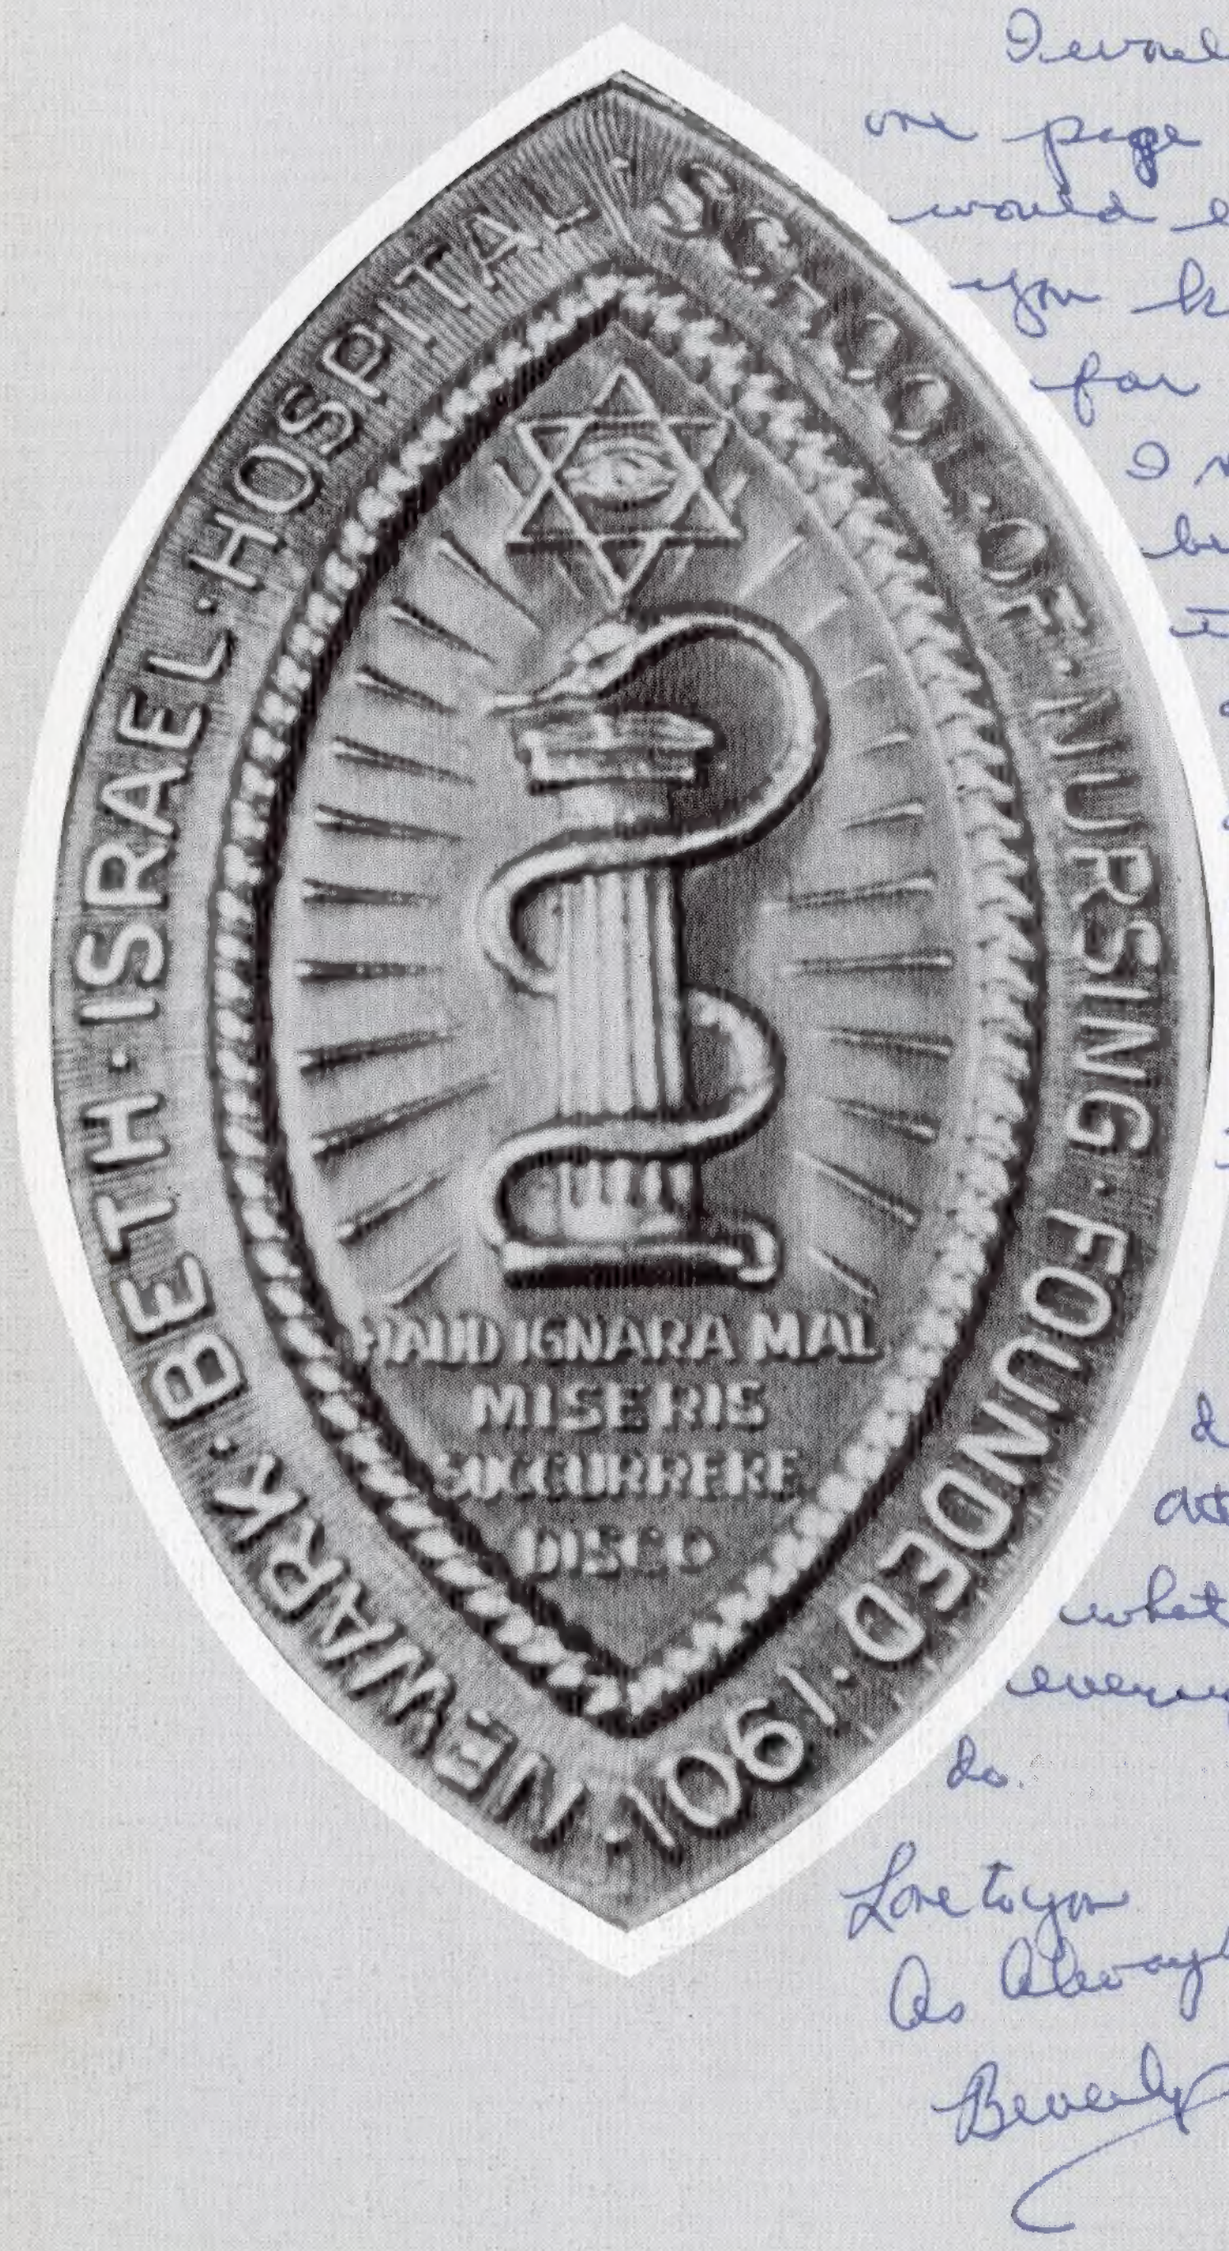
Capping Song

"As our caps are placed upon our heads
With hope in our hearts here we stand,
Asking for strength and guidance
To serve our fellow man.

Beth Israel,
Thank you for giving us this chance
To prove ourselves
Worthy of this cap—

Knowing we are needed by everyone
Regardless of race or creed,
Doing as God would want us,
Tending their every need."

Our School Insignia



Dear Rufie,

I would really need more than one page to write everything I would like to say but I'm sure you know just how I feel as far as our friendship goes. When I met you and we began to be friends, I really appreciated the advice and help you gave me. I'll never forget the wild and wonderful times we had together. Just be sure to drop me a card when it's time for me to get married, remember I need a maid of honor. Best of everything in all that you do. Believe me, I'll come at you with flying colors whatever

Love to you
As always.
Beverly

The symbols of our school pin depict specific historical meaning.

The column stands for learning. It is a Greek column reminding us of the medical schools of Greece where Hippocrates, the father of medicine, taught.

The serpent, which has become the symbol of the medical profession was once considered an important drug. It was popularly believed that medical skill could be gained by eating some parts of the serpent. This is why snakes were tended in the sanctuaries of Aesculapius, the God of healing.

The Star of David, symbol of Judaism, stands over it all with the watchful eye of God in the center star.

The Latin inscription on the pin is: "Haud ingara mal miseris succurrere disco" which means "I learn to nurse in order to help the sick."

In memory of everything our class holds dear, we take great pride in dedicating our yearbook to you, Dr. Rosenkrantz.

As we look back over our three years at Beth, we recall many friendships and warm memories. Those of our Director, our everlasting friend, are foremost in our minds. We will always remember your daily hospital rounds; you never failed to lend the human touch with your cheerful smile and helping hand. You will be our inspiration as we go our separate ways.

Nancy Egger, R. N.

We the Class of 1962 would like to express our appreciation to the person who helped make our Yearbook possible, Mrs. Egger.

At first we encountered many difficulties, but with her continued perseverance and guidance, our problems gradually diminished.

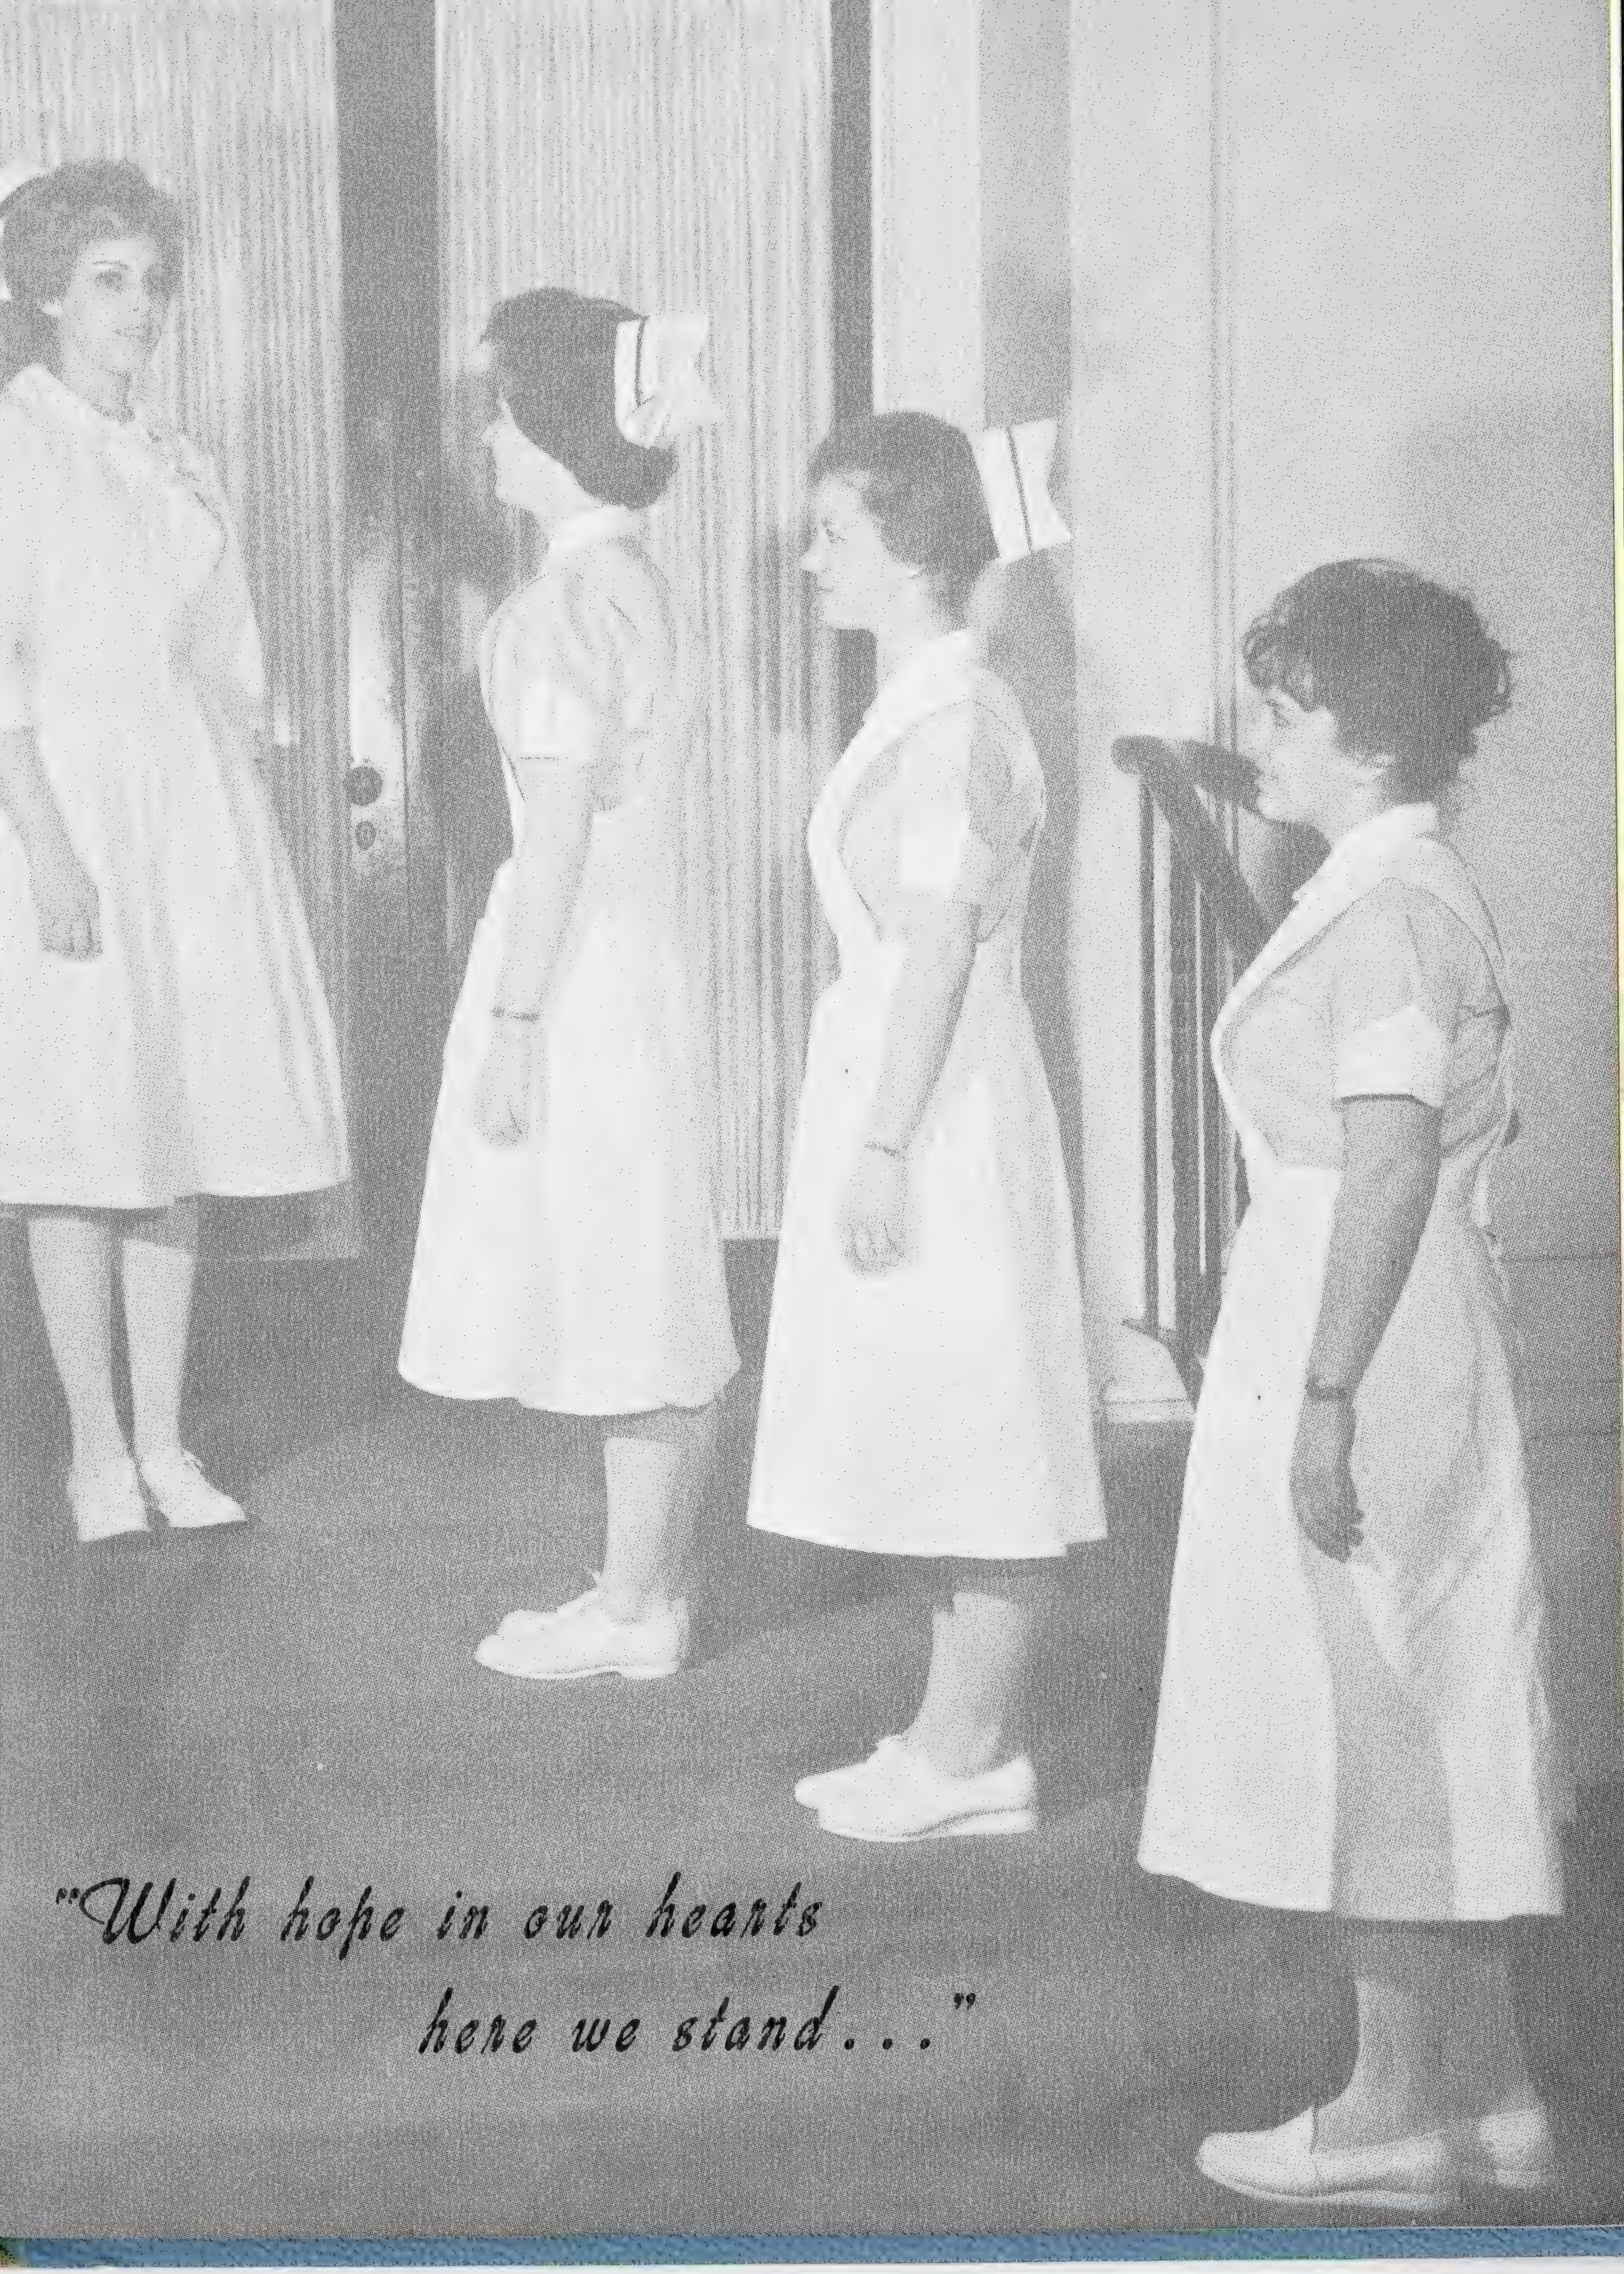
She not only helped us with this book but also encouraged us throughout our three years.

With gratitude, we would like to say thank you.

...and Appreciation

We would like to extend our thanks to the Women's Auxiliary of Newark Beth Israel Hospital, and the Alumnae Association of the Newark Beth Israel Hospital School of Nursing. Through your warm interest in us you have increased our educational, cultural and recreational opportunities. Your enthusiasm in all facets of our growth has known no limits.

With sincere appreciation and heartfelt gratitude, we the Class of 1962 would again like to say thank you.



"With hope in our hearts
here we stand..."

Junior classes and specialties began, separating us once more. Our first "scrub" in the O.R. Bean will never forget; seeing a baby born, caring for the mentally ill, which Mimi and Carol Katz especially enjoyed, are just a few of the experiences we shared.

Various hobbies occupied our spare time. Swifty finally finished the sweater she was knitting for two years, while Susan was a regular "Madame LaFarge." Mitzie and Maxine joined the bowling league while Penny indulged in roller skating. Gray's letters to Germany and Johnson's to Labrador kept the Air Mail service in business.

Senior year was here and black bands adorned our caps. It was a busy time for all as we prepared for our last plateau—Graduation.

Under the direction of Peggy, our class president, yearbook and uniform committees were formed.

McGee and Nemetz represented our school at the N.J.S.S.N.A. Convention in Atlantic City.

Tina, Harriet and Kappy enjoyed a winter vacation in Florida. How we all envied their beautiful tans.

Wass opened her own coffee shop and Hazel became the first mother in our class.

Our classmates seemed like strangers as we rarely saw each other due to working various shifts. In spite of this, Clements really enjoyed her tour of night duty on ward 301.

Our Emergency Room rotation provided a new and different experience which was enjoyed by all.

Finally we were united once more with the beginning of Senior classes. Excitement filled the air as we planned for the Senior Dinner Dance which was held at the Meadowbrook. It was enjoyed by all especially our newlyweds: Sandi and Harvey Friedman, Judy and Arnie Plancher and Loretta and Jimmie Gallagher.

Excitement increased as graduation approached. At last the big night was here! We had reached our last plateau—"with hope in our hearts, there we stood," united for perhaps the last time. We thank you God, for "giving us this chance to prove ourselves worthy of this cap."

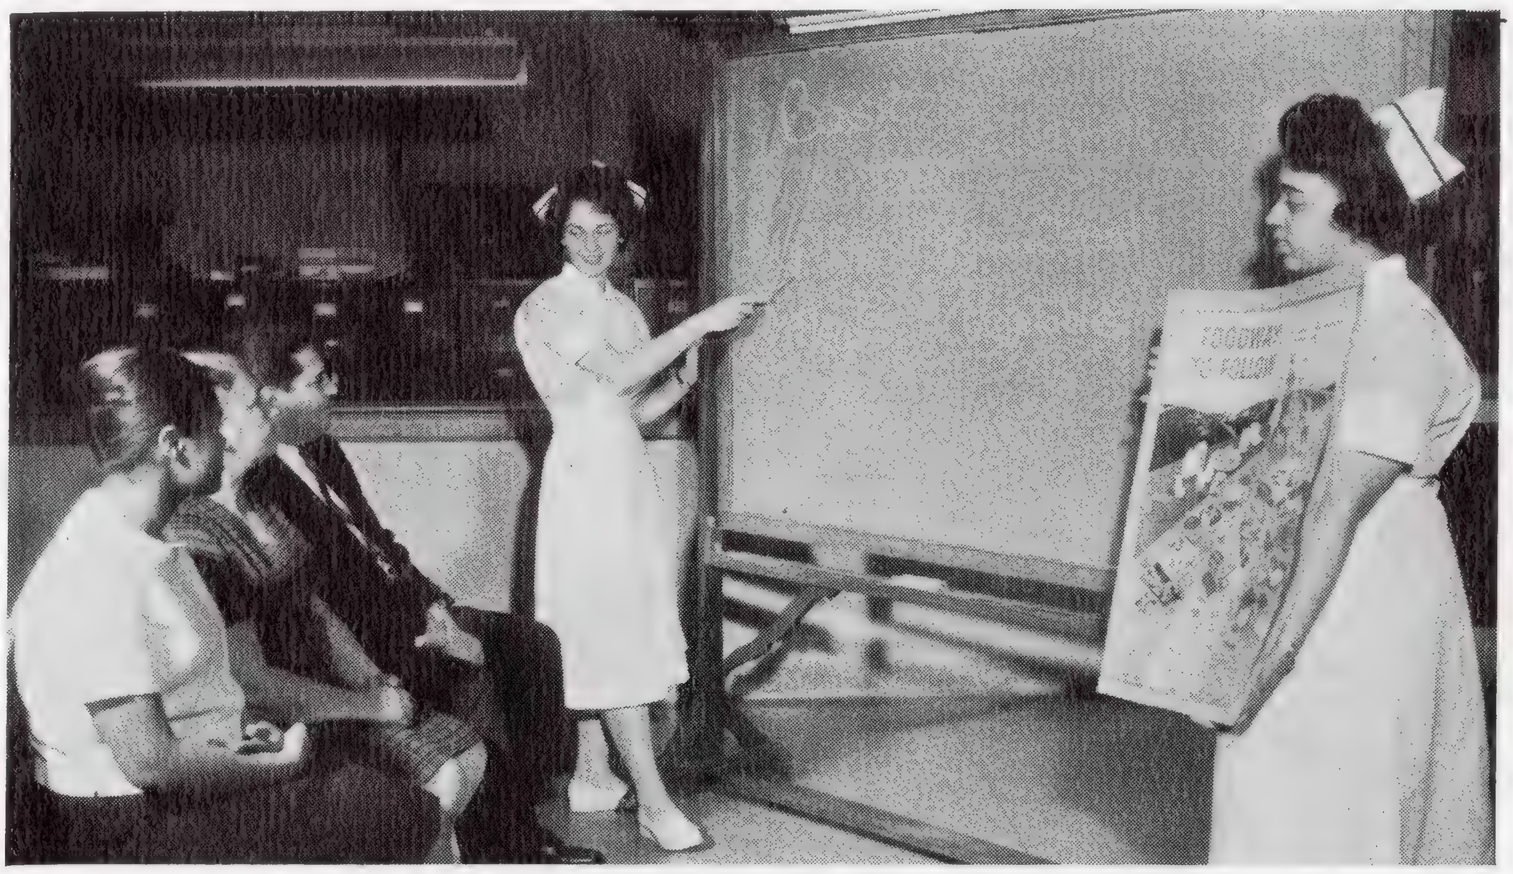
regardless of race or creed,

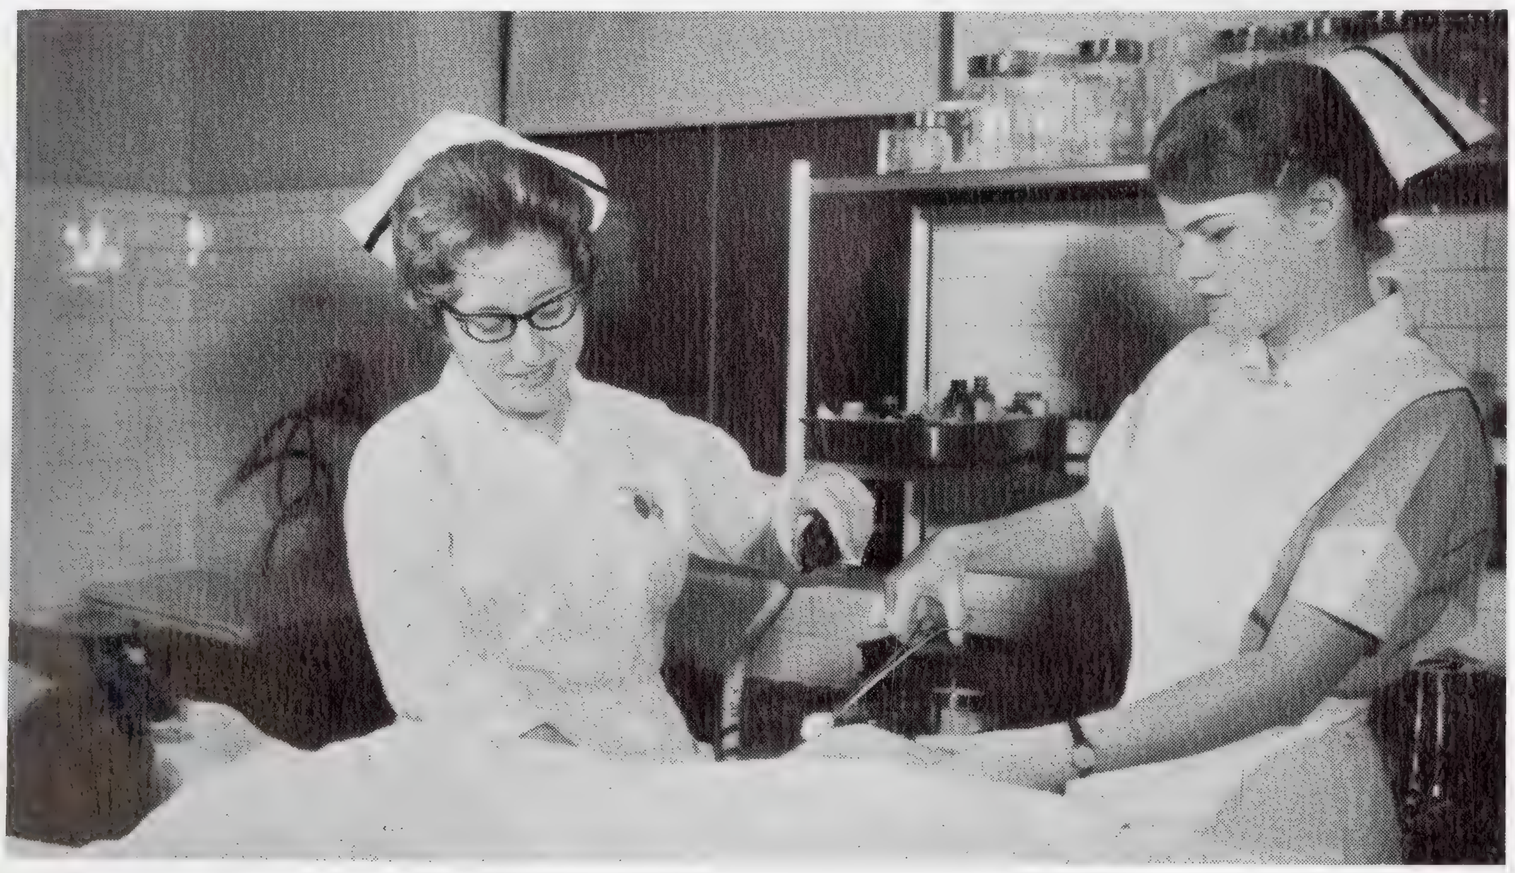
In normal newborn nursery we are able to observe and participate in the care of infants from birth, until their discharge several days later.

8th Floor Nursery: Miss Barbara Appelbohm, Miss Joanne Oles, Miss Ruth Anderson.

Teaching is one of the major roles of the nurse in the community. Here under supervision we are given the opportunity to gain skill in that area.



Teaching in Out-Patient Department: Miss Carol Clements, Miss Joyce McGee.



The student assists the Doctor in carrying out emergency and disaster treatment.

Emergency Room: Miss Balsam, R.N., Miss Carol Wasserman.

Class History

September 8, 1959 was a big day in the lives of forty-three girls. We met unknown to each other but with a common goal—"to serve our fellow man." In retrospect, how well we can remember the party given to us by our "big sisters" on our first night here. This gave us an opportunity to become acquainted with our classmates and was the beginning of many close friendships.

Some girls were fortunate enough to have roommates. Will Anderson ever forget Apples' midnight call for "Maltex" . . . or will we ever forget Slenderella's competitors—Mel and Joy?

Orientation week brought us closer together through parties, informal classes and the annual picnic. This week flew by and we found ourselves in the midst of formal classes which included; anatomy, physiology, microbiology, and nursing arts. This was the time for needing strength and guidance which we found through Mrs. Muldrow. She not only taught us nursing arts but, through herself, gave us the spirit of nursing.

At Halloween time Gracie baked delicious cookies for the party we gave our "big sisters." Uniforms grew tighter, but Hollander solved the problem by starting exercise classes during our breaks.

Our first winter at N.B.I.H. will be remembered by all, especially Oles, because of the snow clad desks in Mrs. McAllen's anatomy class.

As the holiday season approached we decorated the wards in the spirit of Christmas and Chanukah. During this time we worked our first full week on the wards. This brings back many memories especially to Renee, our pioneer in giving injections.

Our next big step forward was Capping on February 25, 1960. "As our caps were placed upon our heads," we reached our first plateau. "Knowing we were needed by everyone regardless of race or creed; doing as God would want us, tending their every need."

Classes, exams, N.L.N.'s and term papers kept us busy.

During the next few months our class was divided for the first time by summer vacations. We returned as Juniors with new blue bands for our caps. At this time we welcomed the Freshman class—our "little sisters."

"To serve our fellow man."

NEWSPAPER COMMITTEE

"The Way We See It," our School Newspaper, goes to press quarterly. The students write informative, amusing and interesting material concerning the hospital personnel and the student body. Also included are Drugs On Parade and Poetry.

Sitting: C. Maddalone, C. Wasserman, B. Appelbohm, P. Devaney, M. Fishman, S. Bauer. Standing: R. Anderson, Chairman; M. Weisfeld, J. Buchney, N. Warringer, R. Pierce, D. Joffe. Not Pictured: C. Bean, C. Katz, M. Pomerantz, C. Clements, J. Newman, R. Charnoff, V. Ballard, A. Coles, B. Shebses, S. Meggison, K. Collins, S. Crockert.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The committee has the important task of selecting candidates for official offices.

Sitting: J. Oles, J. Johnson, Chairman. Standing: B. Swift, M. Bachrach, E. Miller.

JUDICIARY COMMITTEE

In order for rules to be obeyed there must be a committee to enforce them. In this way our school is run on a student government basis. Students who disobey rules are summoned to appear before the Judiciary Committee, where their cases are heard and judgments are made accordingly.

Front Row: G. Klemens, L. Saliski, Chairman; R. Anderson, E. Gerson, S. Penchansky, D. Howard, G. Burk, M. Fishman. Second Row: J. Pfirman, B. Appelbohm, J. Nemetz, R. Rutkowski. Not Pictured: M. Pomerantz, S. Lipson, B. Nadler.

Stay as quiet
Condolentias as you are with the patient always un-mind.
Sincerely
Doris H Bauer

Dear Ruth,
Here's the best of Luck
To you always. May you have all the success ahead
of you and I shall be looking forward to see you cope
up the "Nightingales" Success".
Sincerely,
Camelia Arciaga Linguno

Good Wishes and Success in your future undertakings.

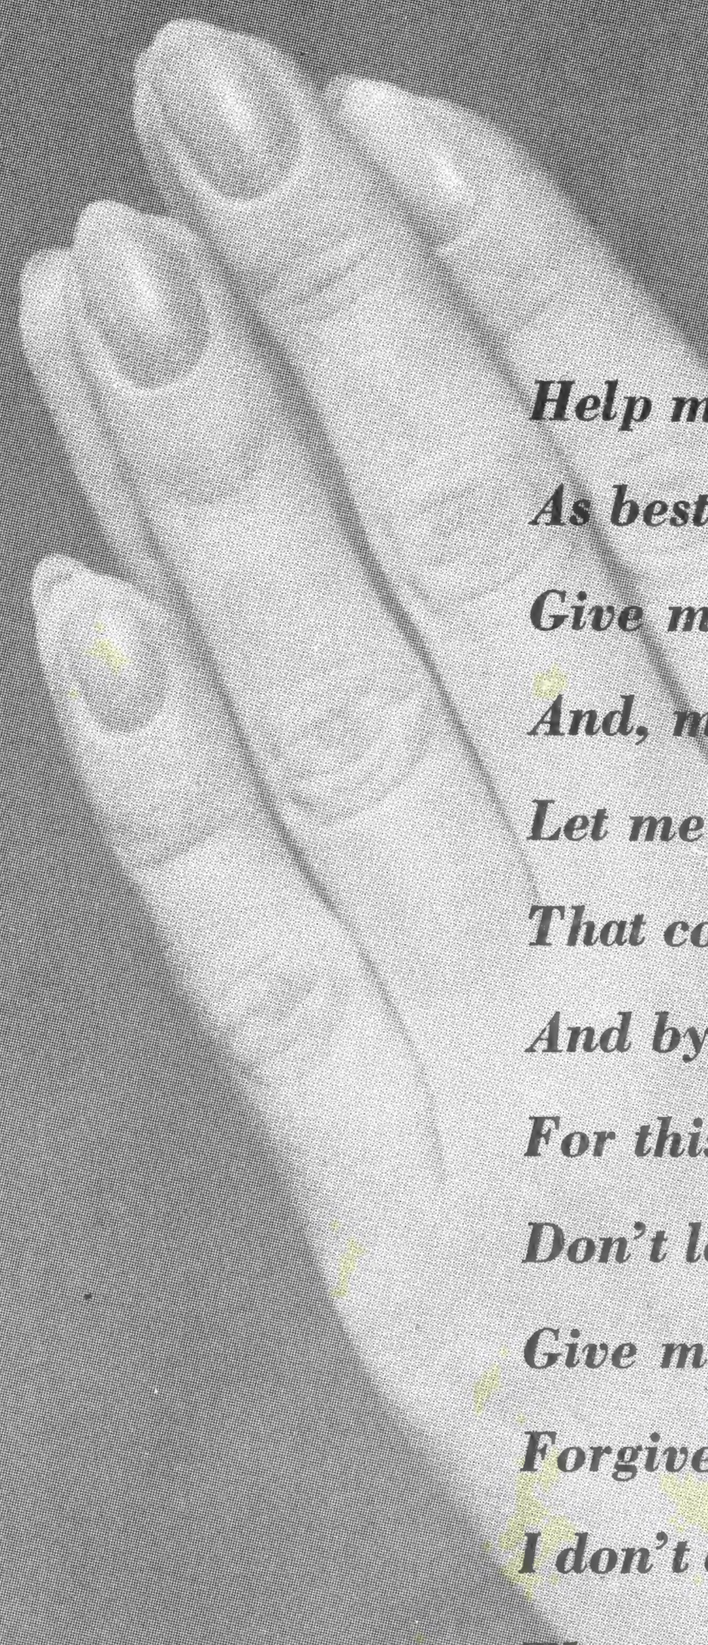
"Doing as God would want us."



A NURSE'S PRAYER

Help me, Lord, to use my skill
As best I can, to do your Holy will.
Give me patience, charity;
And, most of all, humility.
Let me find the peace of mind
That comes to those who serve mankind.
And by so doing, serve you, too,
For this is all I want to do.
Don't let me tire, don't let me shirk,
Give me strength to do my work.
Forgive me if throughout the day,
I don't always take the time to say
The customary prayers to you . . .
Let my PRAYER be the work I do.
